

University of Louisiana at Lafayette

Department of Modern Languages

From: Leslie Bary

To: All Faculty

Re: Web

March 1, 2005

In the newest version of the departmental website, we would like to update listings of research and teaching interests, contact information, and web addresses for all faculty. The format will be as follows:

Sophia T. Newman. Associate Professor of French. Ph.D. University of Michigan.

Eighteenth century literature, colonial discourse.

Office: 466 HLG

Telephone: 337.482.6666

snewman@louisiana.edu

<http://www.ucslouisiana.edu/~sxd6666/index.html>

Descriptions of research and teaching interests are being shortened for reasons of maintenance, among others.

To this end, please fill out this form and place it in CARMEN OROZCO's box as soon as possible.

Please note that (1) If you do not return this form before Spring Break, your description of research and teaching interests may be edited for you, and (2) everyone may post longer descriptions of their current research in their web space on UCS.

Name:

Title:

Highest degree:

Institution:

Research and teaching interests: [Ideally, please list two; three is the maximum we will accept. Maximum of sixty characters, including spaces and punctuation marks.]

[Note: Choose your primary fields and state them briefly. If you are research faculty, consider research before teaching interests. See the example above, and these:

Modern Latin American literature, Comparative Literature. ~56 characters

General, Romance, and Hispanic linguistics. ~43 characters

Medieval and Renaissance literature. ~36 characters

Seventeenth century French literature; poetry and poetics. ~58 characters

Francophone literature of Africa and the Antilles. ~54 characters

Twentieth century French literature; the Maghreb. ~48 characters]

Office:

Telephone:

Email:

@louisiana.edu

[Your university account - no hotmail, yahoo, gmail, etc.]

Website:

[On UCS – no other host! If your site is being hosted elsewhere, you are free to link from UCS to there. But we will only link to UCS!]