Interested in studying abroad in Spring or Fall 2011?

October 13th
Room 425 Griffin Hall
6.00 pm

! Come learn about opportunities in Granada!

One of the greatest benefits of taking Spanish courses in Granada is that it offers the opportunity to get acquainted with one of the most magical cities of Spain.

The beauty of Granada, its architecture, its gardens and that of the surrounding countryside will capture your heart. It is an historical city, home to artists and immortalized by its poets - chief among them being Federico García Lorca.

Its music forms a rich store of melody drawing many musicians to the city. Granada offers a varied cultural landscape, a university town with a strong student ambience, endless possibilities for recreation and sport.

Granada, with a population of 270,000 is the cultural capital of Andalucía. More than 50,000 students attend its University, and contribute to the lively atmosphere of the city. Lorca described Granada as a place for relaxation and enjoyment, whose people were "honorable, sensitive and passionate". "Granada is a city of artists"